

My research focuses mainly on the experimental study of the interaction of spin with heat currents such as the Spin Seebeck and the study of the static and dynamic properties of ferromagnetic thin films.